Other useful information: Goa, a tiny emerald land on the west coast of India is situated between the borders of Maharashtra and Karnataka.

More vacationers visit Goa every year than any other destination on the west coast of India. Why? Wonderful climate. A glorious history richly preserved in churches, forts, traditional homes, villages and its cities. Spectacular pageantry, colourful festivals. Warm and gracious people, superb cuisine. Goa is one of India's most laid back, yet sophisticated and exciting destinations. From miles and miles of sunny beaches, to the splendors of its quaint cities, towns and cobbled alleyways, Goa is more than just beaches and sunshine. It's also the charm and magic of exotic resorts, a verdant green countryside, lush green forests and abundant wildlife topped with the legendary warmth and hospitality of the Goan people.
